

Introducing the Making Her Mark Leaders Program.

Unleash your leadership capabilities and enhance your networks

The Making Her Mark Leaders Program offers a transformative opportunity to nurture your leadership skills while connecting with like-minded individuals in a supportive community.

The program is open to women and non-binary working in a non-traditional industries or who own a own business in a non-traditional industry. Perhaps you are wanting to grow in confidence. Or have a staff member needing support to speak up. Or to grow your communication skills. Or learn more about self, so you can lead authentically.

You don't need to hold a position of power to be a leader – Leadership is the ability to influence others, so in fact we all need leadership skills!

Your facilitator is the well respected Anita Schneyder from Teams on Purpose. Anita combines a warm, authentic coaching style with bona fide management experience, as a team leader and in the role of General Manager at a wine business and the lived experience of the different 'hats' that leaders are required to wear! Anita has put together an amazing program, specifically tailored for women and non-binary working in a non-traditional environment.

EXPAND YOUR LEADERSHIP CAPACITY & CONFIDENCE

We believe in your untapped potential. Our program is specifically designed to help you increase your own leadership capacity, enabling you to rise to new heights in your career.

CONNECT AND BUILD YOUR NETWORK

Surround yourself with a diverse community of women and non-binary who are breaking barriers in their respective fields. Forge meaningful connections, exchange ideas, and create an invaluable network of support and guidance.

LEAD AUTHENTICALLY

Effective leadership goes beyond technical skills. Our program focuses on developing your emotional intelligence, communication prowess, and other qualities essential for inspiring and leading authentically.

TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR CAREER

Our program empowers you to take charge of your professional journey, providing you with the confidence and skills to overcome challenges and seize new opportunities.
